

Veterinary Services Europe

100th Medical Detachment (VS HQ)

Noncommissioned Officer in Charge, 79th Medical Detachment (VS) (SM) (Rear)

SSG Kelly Sanders was born in Long Island, New York and entered service in February 1984. She completed basic training in Fort Jackson, South Carolina and Advanced Individual Training at Fort Sam Houston, Texas.

SSG Sanders has held many different positions during her 21 years as a member of the Army Reserve system. SSG Sanders was originally a physical therapy technician in the 808th Station Hospital, Hempstead, New York. Later SSG Sanders was awarded 71L, clerk typist as a secondary MOS, based on job performance as the unit Company Clerk for the 1208th US Army Hospital, Brooklyn, New York. In 1997, SSG Sanders joined the members of the Veterinary Corps when she became a Veterinary Food Inspector. SSG Sanders is currently enjoying her first active duty deployment as a member of the 79th Medical Detachment.

SSG Sanders' military education includes: Physical Therapy Technician course, Food Inspection Specialist Course, Primary Development Course, Basic NCO Course, Safety Officers Course, to name a few.

Her awards include, the Army Commendation Medal, Army Achievement Medal, Army Reserve Components Achievement Medal, Global War on Terrorism Service Medal, Armed Forces Reserve Medal, NCO Professional Development, Army Service Ribbon, Army Reserve Components Overseas Training Ribbon